

GLIMPSE

Seeking submissions for a new ICDL publication

GLIMPSE showcases the unique perspective contained in the writings and artwork of individuals with a history of autism and other developmental disabilities.

We are seeking poetry, essays, reflections, short stories, photography, and two-dimensional artwork on any subject, so that we may gain a GLIMPSE into the rich inner life of individuals with autism and other developmental disabilities. We are seeking work from individuals of all ages.

GLIMPSE will be published annually online.
To view the 2007 issue, visit www.icdl.com.

Written entries, digital photographs, and questions should be sent to GLIMPSE@icdl.com. Please include name, age, state or country of residence, email, and type of disability.

Additional editorial policy and submission guidelines for artwork are available at www.ICDL.com. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Editors: Lori Jeanne Peloquin, PhD. and Austin Retzlaff
GLIMPSE@icdl.com.